Who We Are

Hope 7

Smile bright for the photograph,
Don't show the world your better half,
Too many times, time is wasted
Live your life, you'd better not be faking.
We're soaked, don't bother mediocre
Time shares without being a loner
Life bomb goes off if you can screw it
Got your chance now, only you can do itSomeday, someday, someday you'll wake up...Chorus:
We are more then who we are,
We are magic, we are stars
Grab the key beyond these bars,
And as far as a mind can see
We are more then who we are;
We are free...
FreeYou've got an empty road ahead
Can't hear the voices in your head;
You're not a loser you're a winner,
You're not spent, so you're not a beginnerSomeday, someday
I know you'll wake up(Chorus)Everybody tries to push you down
They want to put you on some shelf
No one is gonna hold your hand-
You're gonna have to learn to help yourself
And you will, 'cause you can,
If you don't listen to them.We are more then who we are;
We are stars, stars...Ooh, ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh, oohChorus
We are magic, we are stars
Grab the key beyond these bars,
And as far as a mind can see
We are more then who we are;
We are free, free
We are free.
