Dave McPherson

I heard your, depression is hurting lately.
A black hole sucking all the hope, all the hope in your mind.
You carried me for 9 long months, a blank canvas little baby.
And I guess somehow your weaknesses have influenced & shaped me.(Chorus)
And I will be there for you.
I will fight for you.
And its too late, to make it out of here.
It's too late.
But would you save all the others?
Would you save all the others?
Would you save all the others?I heard you, got married and had a baby.
To you Im a path unspoken.
A broken distance maybe.
You underestimate me, you never had to hate me.
But I still understand the truth.
You never couldve saved me.(Chorus)
And I will be there for you.
I will fight for you.
And its too late, to make it out of here.
It's too late.
But would you save all the others?
Would you save all the others?
Would you save all the others?woooahwoooahwoooah...I heard you, whistling in the garden.
All I ever wanted from you was to hear I had your pardon.woooahwoooahwoooah...
