

Sunday Morning (feat. Aaron Paul)

Skinshape

You keep on knocking but you can't come in,
you know it's true
I found a secret place where I can hide from everything, including you
There's no regret, no lingering doubt
There is no feeling that I'm not without

Sunday morning
Sunday morning

You keep on knocking but you can't come in,
you know it's true
I found a secret place where I can hide from everything,
including you.
There's no regret, no lingering doubt

You keep on knocking but you can't come in
You keep on knocking but you can't come in
You know its true
