

Flesh and the Power It Holds

Death

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I told you once but I will say it again
When you live the flesh it's the beginning of the end It will take you in, it will spit you out Behold the flesh and the power it holds Passion is a poison laced with pleasure bitter sweet
One of many faces that hides deep beneath It will take you in, it will spit you out Behold the flesh and the power it holds Touch, taste, breathe, consumed Deja vu, already knew from the first
encounter
But now I know to let go of words to speak no more Like a wind upon your face you can't see it but you know
it's there
When beauty shows its ugly face, just be prepared Passion burns like fire carried by the wind
The end of a time, a time to begin It will take you in, it will spit you out Behold the flesh and the power it holds It's build you up one way and tears you right back down
A time to begin the end of a time It will take you in, it will spit you out Behold the flesh and the power it holds Touch, taste, breathe, consumed Deja vu, already knew from the first
encounter
But now I know to let go of words to speak no more Like a wind upon your face you can't see it but you know
it's there
When beauty shows its ugly face, just be prepared
