Livin' In The Now

Poison

Got no time to think about good intentions
Got no time to think about indiscretions
Don't wanna think about past reflections
Don't wanna think about tomorrow
'Cuz I'm livin' in the now, yeah
Hold tight it'll be alright
Liv'in in the now
Hold tight it'll be alright
A little unsure today
Lock you in a cage
Unkind thing to say
Flies into a rage
Every day is shorter than the day before
Saving for a rainy day is just a metaphor
Every day is shorter than the day before
Saving for a rainy day is just a metaphor
'Cuz I'm livin' in the now, yeah
Hold tight it'll be alright
Liv'in in the now
Hold tight it'll be alright
It's so easy to offend
When venom is your friend
Wounds can never mend
And you don't try

Every day is shorter than the day before
Saving for a rainy day is just a metaphor
Every day is shorter than the day before
Saving for a rainy day is just a metaphor
'Cuz I'm livin' in the now, yeah
Hold tight it'll be alright
Liv'in in the now
Hold tight it'll be alright
(Solo)
Now you watch me bleed
'Cuz you never did believe me
Only to decieve with just one lie
Every day is shorter than the day before
Saving for a rainy day is just a metaphor

Every day is shorter than the day before
Saving for a rainy day is just a metaphor
'Cuz I'm livin' in the now, yeah
Hold tight it'll be alright
Liv'in in the now
Hold tight it'll be alright
'Cuz I'm livin' in the now, yeah
Hold tight it'll be alright
Livin' in the now
Hold tight it'll be alright, out
