

Siren Song (Arabesque Mix)

Jehan Kamal

Now you're here why did it take so long hold my hand come with me into the silence follow me don't be afraid of the dark only then will you know the confessions of my heart 1000 times,I tried to tell you you wouldn't hear me 1000 times,I tired to show yohj you wouldn't see now you're here and I will carry you home i'm. A siren of the sea calling you home to me. Beneath the waves,back in time to a place where you were mine i'm a siren of the sea calling you home to me. Hear the music of my song and you will know where you belong I'm a siren of the sea calling you home to me why did it take so long for you to hear my song
