

We Can Do It

Voodoo Monkey Child

There is daily magic, we may not even recognize.
That the angels fly above to say to us "look around"
There are flowery treetops enjoying the touch of the breeze
I'm thinking, what can I do for them?
'cause they're the reason that we can breathe...

I am closing my eyes, suddenly I hear a song
Such amazing tunes, that I can't even sing along...
There are many birds out there,
They have a noble gold in their throat
I'm thinking, what can I do for them?
'cause they're a miracle for this world...

I can. You can. We all can save this world.
Give me your hand, to show you what's around.
I can. You can. We all can give support
and stop destroying nature,
Yes! We Can Do It all...

Now I'm looking closer on the presents of this life,
From the morning sunset, to the moonlight of the night
Here' is more of beauty, happy little elephants
I'm thinking, what can I do for them?
Where do they go for their freedom?

I can. You can. We all can save this world.
Give me your hand, to show you what's around.
I can. You can. We all can give support
and stop destroying nature,
Yes! We Can Do It all...
