Bonanzoid Deathgrip

I'm not eager to achieve your life skills.
So, I slow down and scratch the itch between my chin and nose.
We're melting at sea. We're melting at sea.
Why do you take everything I say the wrong way?
i've built a black hearted girl without any soul or life inside, so I can settle down with what a stranger would call my soul mate.
We're melting at sea. We're melting at sea.
Why do you take everything I say the wrong way?
why do you take everything I say the wrong way?
Vacate the vacancy. Stroll through the mystery bazaar.

To all concerned: find a gun, find a reason; help us come undone.
To all concerned: focus your anger and stop feasting like a fucking animal.
Vampires: they make their money at the blood bonanza.
Vampires: they make their money at the blood bonanza.
Disengage the deathgrip; it's a risk worth taking.
So, you lay there like a dying worm; brains all gone. Disslocate and suffer.
Fed up of choking on worthless blood, she's like a fucking crippled animal.
Vampires: they make their money at the blood bonanza.
Vampires: they make their money at the blood bonanza.
Vampires: they make their money at the blood bonanza.
Vampires: they make their money at the blood bonanza.
