

I Know I Never Spoke of This

Mark Wilkinson

I know I never spoke of this
?Cause babe I was ashamed
Before I felt that brittle kiss
The world just felt so tame.
Remember back last year
The way I used to smile
It was not as it appeared
?Cause appearances can lie

I know I never spoke of this
?Cause a part of me still burns, it still burns
And though I think I?m over this
I?m scared it might return
Remember back last year
The day that you got sick
Your eyes had filled with tears
And I didn?t understand
But now I think I know how you feel

Like holding on just feels like letting go
Like all the things you?ve cherished have been sold
And underneath the canopy you?ve grown
There?s anarchy just laughing on its throne
And it?s like we triggered something deep inside
That leapt at us with vengeful eyes
And suddenly the chase was on
But we had no place left to run
Once that devils deal was done
The hunter and the prey were one
And the circuitry had all been blown
The self-destructive seeds were sown
It?s bouncing through me, left and right
And there?s too much in my head tonight
Lightning triple thunder babe I think I?m slipping under
And I?m going down, I?m underground
I?m lost unbound and I can?t be found
This introspective plunder
I know I?m going under
Oh no no no
