

Let Me Out of My Head

Cosmo Jarvis

Welcome to my head,
now that you're here I'll show you around.
This is where I live,
it's dark but I am safe and sound.
I see everything the same way vampires see the day.
I don't like it but life can be good so I will stay. Not as good as I thought it would be,
not nearly as fair.
Somebody dreams.
Let me out of my head, let me out!
Let me out of my head, let me out!
Let me out of my head, let me out!
Let me out of my head, let me out! Everyone's an enemy,
until I prove them wrong.
I know what I've done before I didn't wait too long.
I could love so much but then I hate me just like them.
Sometimes I get sad and wish I could tell a friend. Not as good as I thought it would be,
not nearly as fair.
Somebody dreams.
Let me out of my head, let me out!
Let me out of my head, let me out!
Let me out of my head, let me out!
Let me out of my head, let me out!... Let me out of my head, let me out! x4
