

Still Down (feat. Kirko Bangz)

Ye Ali

[Hook]

Are you down, down, down, down?

Are you down, down, down?

Are you down?

Are you down, down, down, down, down?

Are you down, down, down, down?[Verse 1]

I've been in these streets, but tonight's the night

You've been waitin' all week for me to do you right

I know you got some stress built up

Sit down and let me fill your cup

I love when you get on that Henny

I can (?)

These magnums, I got plenty

That pussy taste like (?)

And I'ma make your star burst

For all the times I made your heart burst

Hold on, hope I didn't take too long

Tonight is for you, for you, for you, for you

I'm a young playa from the 713

Your new nigga can't do shit like me

I'ma pull up with the (?) tonight, tonight, tonight[Hook]

Are you down, down, down, down?

Are you still down, down, down?

Are you still down?

Are you down?

Are you down, down, down?

Tell me are you down?

Are you down, down, down, down?[Verse 2]

I'll call you at work

You see my name? Baller alert

But I promise

You the only

Fuck them hoes

You my best friend, my homie

Cause right when I was broke and had nothin'

You knew that a young nigga was somethin'

I thought you cared, girl you swore that you loved me

Now you only need your mountain of money

I got 21 questions like

Who could do you better? Yeah
I pick you up from Texas, yeah
Girl you know what I'm expectin', yeah
Are you still down, down, down, down?
Hit your line when I'm in town now
Turn your frown upside down now
Fuck a 9 to 5, let's 69 now
