

Hives

Burning Image

Scratch his face, make him understand
Knock her on the ground, make her understand
What is that you hear? Language you hold dear You are naturally - moving
Moving toward the - hive mind
Wave thought versus - sickly words
Silence versus - breath of myth Talk speak laugh cry, yell tell scream die
Never work so scratch touch smash no!
Can there be no strength in you to change the future path you're on
The broadcast minds of your new queen will, tame you, train you, enslave you Make you drone and drone and drone You must LEAVE! Sovereign state of mind! There is no queen in the territory of My mind is MINE! Sovereign individual state Work work obey obey sell your soul to the queen mother (2X) (I don't believe you)
You must you must, feed the hive to stay alive, you must strive and strive Obey! No! Obey! No! Our languages are pretty cages, Inlaid with gold, ten thousand years old Per chance you might escape, asylum be your mate We are naturally - moving
Moving toward the - hive mind
Wave thought versus - sickly words
Silence versus - breath of myth
