

Sweaters

Laurie Anderson

I no longer love your mouth. I no longer love your eyes. I no longer love your eyes. I no longer love the color of your sweaters. I no longer love it. I no longer love the color of your sweaters O longer love the way you hold your pens and pencils. I no longer love it. your mouth. your eyes. the way you hold your pens and pencils. I no longer love it. I no longer love it.
