

You Made the Blue

Shakhan

A million words couldnt sum you up.

What can I say, how to start?

Yet what I know is this:

 My neck is so sore
 from looking up so high
 Oh you made the blue

The blue sky.I feel so inadequate to describe You in words

 From this paper, maybe I should part

 Yet with these words

 Ill finish

 and find some soft grass and on my back lie.

 Oh you made the blue

 You made the blue

 The blue sky.
