

The Next Life

Greg Holden

My blood runs warm
Deep in my chest
My heart has a hole in it
Where the bullet came to rest
And the floor feels cold
Against my face
If I'm losing my world right now
There's something I've got to say
Don't worry darling
'Cause if I die
You'll hear me calling out
When I find you in the next life
Don't worry darling
Please don't cry
I'll still be falling for you
So find me in the next life
Well I heard a noise
Deep in my sleep
Your heart had a hole in it
And I prayed it was all a dream
And I saw you fall
Just out of my reach
If you're leaving my world right now
Well, you'd better come back to me
Come back to me
Don't worry darling
'Cause if I die
You'll hear me calling out
When I find you in the next life
Don't worry darling
Please don't cry
I'll still be falling for you
So find me in the next life
(Ooooh, ooooh)
Don't worry darling
'Cause if I die
You'll hear me calling out
When I find you in the next life
Don't worry darling
Please don't cry
I'll still be falling for you
So find me in the next life
I'll still be falling for you
So find me in the next life
