

Crashin' the Boys' Club

Lauren Alaina

Talking drama
Drinking red wine
If I hear I look fat one more time
Doin' spray tans
Getting highlights
Can't put up with this stuff all night
My boyfriend, and all of his friends, and all of their friends are drinking beer right now
Downtown, just keeping it cool
Talking about football cards, favorite bars, and glory days in high school
And I wanna be too
Girls are gonna go, go, go
Above you, wanna know, know, know
But I wanna have some fun, fun, fun so I'm crashin' the boys' club
I know I ain't a man, man, man
But I hope you understand, stand, stand
'Cause tonight my kinda fun, fun, fun is crashin' the boys' club
Got no worries
Ain't no whining
No behind your back, smack talk, and crying
It ain't complicated
So don't complicate it
Just some good 'ol laid back hanging
My girlfriend, and all of her friends, and all of their friends are gossiping
So loud and painting their nails
Talking about other girls, broken hearts, movie stars
I usually would, but tonight I don't care
Girls are gonna go, go, go
Above you, wanna know, know, know
But I wanna have some fun, fun, fun so I'm crashin' the boys' club
I know I ain't a man, man, man
But I hope you understand, stand, stand
'Cause tonight my kinda fun, fun, fun is crashin' the boys' club
My boyfriend, and all of his friends, and all of their friends are drinking beer right now
Downtown, just keeping it cool
Talking about football cards, favorite bars, and glory days in high school
And I wanna be too
Above you, wanna know, know, know
But I wanna have some fun, fun, fun so I'm crashin' the boys' club, ooh yeah
I know I ain't a man, man, man
But I hope you understand, stand, stand
'Cause tonight my kinda fun, fun, fun is crashin' the boys' club Tonight my kinda fun, fun, fun is crashin' the boys' club
