Mankind

Helloween

Here is a mankind
So proud of achievement
There is a stone
That is warmer than youLook how we stand
In the stream of illusions
No one says a wordHere you live
(Here you live)
And there you cry
(There you cry)
All that makes you move
There's no tear for anything
Anything but you
HooAnimals dying for our vanity
Our world is
A beautiful place to be freeDrinking the blood
Of the weak is so easy
No one hears them cryHere you cheat
(Here you cheat)
And there you lie
(There you lie)
All that makes you gain
One day we will face his throne
There's nothin' we can sayProsperity, luxury
Fast food is risin'
It's the rainforest that diesHere you live
(Here you live)
And there you cry
(There you cry)
All that makes you move
There's no tear for anything
Anything but youHere you cheat
(Here you cheat)
And there you lie
(There you lie)
All that makes you gain
One day we will face his throne
There's nothin' we can say
