Katie

David Ford

All this time, and all is fine
Don't call me paranoid
But I think some thing's going on
I know you say, it looks okay, yeah
But I've got my suspicions
But I don't want to be like this'Cos I'm a reasonable guy, but I can't shake this
And I don't know whyExperience brings, a kinda sense for these things
Don't call me paranoid
But I think some thing's going on
'Cos it seems alright, oh, but it's too damn quiet
And I tell ya, I don't like it
Oh God, I wish it isn't so'Cos I'm a reasonable guy, but I can't shake this
And I don't know whyKatie, will you say to me, will you just laugh
And tell me that I've got it wrong?
Katie, will you say to me, will you just tell me
Please what the fuck is going on?Oh, for goodness sake, now you know I'd hate
To come over obsessive
'Cos I'm really, really, really I'm not like that at all Did I say too much? Yeah, well not as such
Oh, look but there I go again
No, this really is not how I amIt's just there's something in my mind
That says, "Where were you last night?"Katie, will you say to me, will you just laugh
And tell me that I've got it wrong?
Katie, will you say to me, will you just tell me
Please what the fuck is going on? Going onKatie, will you say to me, will you just laugh
And tell me that I've got it wrong?
Katie, will you say to me, will you just tell me
Please what the fuck is going on?
