

Soon

Dexys Midnight Runners

I wont need to think of nice things to say,
I dont want to want this way anymore, Shh now and hear comes silence, from this comes strength I promise,
This is it soon i won't care
No need for pain, nothing physical, no violence, Just intense thought some space some silence, just something pure and precious worth having, soon i won't care take this ridiculous mood all away, then give me something new i could say, no more time to look like this,
I'll never ask again I promise.
