

Criminal

Alexz Johnson

I won't deny, I faked it
Don't wanna lie, I'm jadded
I wanna scream when inside I'm breaking down
I've left the stone I was under
I'm running home, you won't find her
She walks alone all through this broken town[Chorus]
Goin' the wrong way down a one way street
Where the feeling is criminal
Nobody helps me out when I believe
Just a look, look, looking for someone like me
Where the feeling is mutual
Can anybody see what I see
'cause I don't see me I go away wear a shell
I claim his face to look out of
He stole my name while I waited lost and found
I found a place where I'll keep you
'cause I won't live through you or beneath you
I walk this way where these winds won't bring me down[Chorus]
Goin' the wrong way down a one way street
Where the feeling is criminal
Nobody helps me out when I believe
Just a look, look, looking for someone like me
Where the feeling is mutual
Can anybody see what I see
'cause I don't see me don't Let me be Stayin at all
Don't waste it on me
'cause if I take a chance
And if I hurt again
And if I let you leave
Be my reconing
Ooo, hey![Chorus]
Goin' the wrong way down a one way street
Where the feeling is criminal
Nobody helps me out when I believe
Just a look, look, looking for someone like me
Where the feeling is mutual
Can anybody see what I see
'cause I don't see me
