

We Should Be Sleeping

Eddie Money

We should be sleeping now
We're wide awake, but we're dead on our feet
We're never keeping, no
All of the promises we said we'd keep
Still got the lights and the radio on
Don't worry, baby
I'm gonna change all the things that went wrong, now
Tables are turned and it's, it's breaking my heart
Things will get better (I promise you, honey)
I'll end this nightmare before it can start
Don't say, "Bye-bye-bye-bye-bye-bye, baby"
Why should we break down and cry?
Can't let the world drive you crazy
Don't say, "Bye, baby bye-bye, now"
Don't say, "Bye-bye-bye, baby, now"
We're still wide awake, but we're dead on our feet, now
We're never keeping, now
All of the promises we said we'd keep
Don't say, "Bye-bye-bye-bye-bye-bye, baby"
Why should we break down and cry?
Can't let the world drive you crazy, hey
Don't say, "Bye, baby, bye-bye"
Play with love, you're gonna burn
Cheat yourself, you cheat your heart
[Incomprehensible]
Don't say, "Bye-bye-bye-bye-bye-bye, baby"
Why should we break down and cry?
Don't let the world drive you crazy
Don't say, "Bye, baby, bye-bye, now"
Don't say, "Bye-bye-bye-bye, baby, now"
Why should we break down and cry?
Don't let the world drive you crazy, oh no
Don't say, "Bye, baby, bye-bye"
Why should we break down and cry?
Don't let the world drive you crazy
Don't say, "Bye, baby, bye-bye"
