Domino Effect

OZMA

Chances last a finite time,
In the warm july nighttime.
Every care that keeps you from your feet,
is a care that carries your defeat.You better let 'er rip tonight,
With a pocket full of kryptonite.
Every care that keeps you in your seat,
is a care that carries your defeat.Sing that song you sang long ago.
A heartbeat, so sure and slow.
Hold me, and don't let go.
The fourteenth domino.Twenty thousand points of light.
Sun by day, disco ball by night.
Every care that keeps you from the beat,
is a care that carries your defeat.Sing that song that i used to know.
The fourteenth black domino.
Hold me, like long ago.
A heartbeat, sure and slow.Chances last a finite time,
In the warm july nighttime.
Every care that keeps you from your feet,
is a care that carries your defeat.Chances last a finite time, and you're running out of time
