New Days

CROSS GENE

I, I wonder why twisted things get you cry no matter how hard we try it seems that my voice never reach to the sky then I see the tears down from your eyes to realizestill livin in the pain eat sleep walk under the rain feelin like the universe on my shoulder keep speakin to myself shoulda woulda coulda but yeah I know this change with the new dayLose one way loveCalling youNew daysNew ways New day Wake up Wake up()
New ways New daystell me where you headin to uh clock tick tockin to the end of the story and it's so fast for me I came thru the last page of the book but they, never got me a chance to show you what the lovers dotell me what I gotta say what I gotta do if u tell me this's the only way yeah think I gotta move you gotta track what you want on your way I ain't gonna cry myself out for the new daysAll is overFallin down1
New days
