International You Day

Tony Sly

i'm sorry that it took so long to write this song but i gave up you see one million words can't describe how it feels to know your love where did i go wrong? i should have told you from the start that i'm closer then you think when we're apart nothing that i've tried is as simple as this line but without you my life is incomplete my days are absolutely gray and so I'll try let your heart know for sure that i have so much more to tell you every single day i swear i'm giving up my inside to the one that i adore i know this world is big enough for you and i but i'll give you more i'm coming home today to wipe the tears drops from your eyes i'm totally enamored by your life nothing that i've done has ever been for one but without you my life is incomplete my days are absolutely gray and so I'll try let your heart know for sure that i have so much more to tell you every single day my life is incomplete my rights are absolutely wrong so wake me up before you leave today something i need to say cause they'll be nothing when you're gone
