Midnight Run

Shimon

All the things you hate I find fun,
Things you wanna see are just done,
I may regret if you're the right one,
But i can't avoid the midnight run.
I'll keep on going,
I'll keep on going 'till I find the right one,
I'll keep on growing,
I'll keep on growing 'till I find myself a new gun.
If we're meant to be together, change the way you see the weather,
Live for now forget forever, we could still be here December,
If we're meant to be together, change the way you see the weather,
Live for now forget forever...
On another midnight run, sniffing for trouble unlucky for some,
On another midnight run, I'll still be breathing come the morning sun,
It's hurting my eyes, it's hurting my ears, I know, I know, I know, there'll be tears,
You're hurting inside, been hurting for years, I know, I know, I know, there'll be tears,
Life's never that clear. (clear)
All those things you said you don't like,
Were helping me get high as a kite,
Someone promised me they wouldn't bite,
I guess i'm someone different at night,
I'll keep on going,
I'll keep on going 'till my heart says don't,

I'll keep on growing,
I'll keep on growing 'till i find myself a new show.
If we're meant to be together, change the way you see the weather,
Live for now forget forever, we could still be here December,
If we're meant to be together, change the way you see the weather,
Live for now forget forever...
On another midnight run, sniffing for trouble unlucky for some,
On another midnight run, I'll still be breathing come the morning sun,
It's hurting my eyes, it's hurting my ears, I know, I know, I know there'll be tears,
You're hurting inside, been hurting for years, I know, I know, I know there'll be tears
Life's never that clear. (clear)
Got a couple of skeletons in my closet, couple of skeletons in my bed,
Couple of skeletons in my wallet, couple of skeletons in my head,
I never should've listened to the serpent no one's perfect certainly it worked for me,
It weren't me who took the sherbet so don't point your sticks at me,

I've read the ten commandments at large no harm ignoring parts of it,
Had it up to here with the jargon, pardon there are my rules I started,
Not saying that I don't feel guilty, silky smooth it's never gonna be,
But I'm looking at a man in the mirror right now, and I'm not quite sure it's me.
On another midnight run, sniffing for trouble unlucky for some,
On another midnight run, I'll still be breathing come the morning sun,
It's hurting my eyes, it's hurting my ears, I know, I know, I know there'll be tears,
You're hurting inside, been hurting for years, I know, I know, I know there'll be tears,
Life's never that clear. (clear)
