

Miserable Company

He Is Legend

You're dark enough for the both of us.
You've made it plain to see Under the sky we are foreigners and we move gracefully Under your four letters lies, the magic words
Holy mountain whisper
forest hides the bird
you can seek her wisdom in the mornings early light i swear that witchy woman, man, she'll take you by surprise We stayed inside so as not to rust Miserable company
A jug of wine for the both of us so we thirst terribly Under your four letters lies, the magic words
Holy mountain whisper
forest hides the bird
you can seek her wisdom in the mornings early light i swear that witchy woman, man, she'll take you by surprise You know I'm going to come when you call if i have to tear down this wall you never have to worry at all you never want a reason to see me it's sad to see you look so greedy if you ever make it back to the Sea just say the word you swore to me apology lobotomy Will you say the words to me?
Break out of the spell that you're under You've got to set me free
