Black Mountain (Beautiful Love)

Arsenal

The sound of your sweet tongue striking me down all day,
The thump of my pulse in my head's not going away.Time flows quick and then drips so slow.
I see stop frames, I hear half speed audio.Beautiful love, fallen in
So everything sings for the love my
Beautiful love brings,
And my heartbeat shakes me so heavily.The shape that you make when I lay down in between,
The spell that you break when we wake up from the same dream.Time plays tricks and then stops mid flow,
I see stop frames, I hear half speed audio.Beautiful love, fallen in
So everything sings for the love my
Beautiful love brings,
And my heartbeat shakes me so heavily.
Beautiful scenes in my mind,
Mean everything screams for the love my
Beautiful love dreams,
And my heartbeat makes me feel heavenly.Excuses are undone,
I've used every single one,
My gut and my long shot,
Hold all of the hope we've got,
For I am no fighter,
No saint, no wrong righter,
I'll tear every fibre for you.The fear that you grip when you've got something to say,
The hell that you raise when your last chance slips away.Time flows quick and then drips so slow.
I see stop frames, I hear half speed audio.Beautiful love, fallen in
So everything sings for the love my
Beautiful love brings,
And my heartbeat shakes me so heavily.
Beautiful scenes in my mind,
Mean everything screams for the love my
Beautiful love dreams,
And my heartbeat makes me feel heavenly.
