Emaline

Ben Folds

I wish it was last September
When we could lose ourselves in crowds every day
'Cause Emaline, she don't walk in time
She's not the same, that's all you can sayBut when I've heard enough
I tell myself

That we've learned our lesson, but I

Don't wanna walk away from EmalineThey're talking now

Does she know what they're saying?

She's got the air to float above and

I'm sinking into summer champagneShe's dear to me and so expensive

Now I'm not talking 'bout money

When money talks I hate to listen

But lately it's been screaming in my earAnd when I've heard enough

I tell myself

That we've learned our lesson, but I

Don't wanna walk away from EmalineIt only took me one look

To understand Emaline

Sometimes I don't

Know what she's sayingSometimes I do, sometimes I don't know What she's saying, but I know, I know

I know what she wants to believe

I wish it was last SeptemberDon't let me walk away from Emaline, for stupid reasons

Now I'm talking 'bout money

When money talks I hate to listen

But lately it's been screaming in my earOh what advice? Girls need attention

Well are you different than all mine?

For all it's worth she's got attention

From people like you who see black and whiteI've heard enough

I'll tell you what

Really shouldn't sit here and whine I'll take you down to see my Emaline
