

Who Let You Go?

The Killers

Who let you go? Who let you go?
Who let you go? Who let you go?
Who let you go? Who let you go?
Who let you go? Who let you go? I feel it inside
Down in my soul
And I just can't hide these things
I know We could be friends
And I promise that it won't get bad
But hopefully that story ends
But you ain't got nothing I never had
So let's take it slow Who let you go? Who let you go?
Who let you go? Who let you go? Someone must have loved you
Not the way that I do
You're missing what I'm trying to say
Ain't nothing getting in my way So tell me that's fantastic
And promise me, you'll always sigh
I find it so romantic
When you look into my beautiful eyes
And lose control Who let you go? Who let you go?
Who let you go? Who let you go?
Who let you go? Who let you go?
Who let you go? Who let you go? I don't know
What it means
But I've been wondering
Who let you go? And honey
When you walk my way
It makes me wanna say
Ohh Sha-la-la-lo, sha-la-la-lo
Sha-la-la-lo, sha-la-la-lo
