

No Sex

David Vendetta

Went too fast, way too soon
I feel disgusted and you should too
Its no good when all that's left is the sex
The sexSex has become all I know about you
Memories of those filthy things that we do
There's not one single thought that is left
After sex with youShould've left my pants on this time
But instead you had to let me dive right in
Should've left my pants on this time
You let me dive right, you let me dive right inWait
It's my ass, and your perfume
That make temptation hard to refuse
So I guess, we undressed
To have sex, dirty sexSex has become all I know about you
Memories of those filthy things that we do
There's not one single thought that is left
After sex with youShould've left my pants on this time
But instead you had to let me dive right in
Should've left my pants on this time
You let me dive right, you let me dive right inHow could you respect yourself?
You couldn't respect yourself but
An' I didn't respect myself
An' I couldn't infect myself with
Realize that I'm worth more than that
Realize that I'm worth more than that
Realize that I'm worth more than that
Realize that I mean more than thatShould've left my pants on this time
But instead you had to let me dive right in
Should've left my pants on this time
You let me dive right, you let me dive right in
