Dance

The Lovemakers

Saw you at the party
You were there
On the phone
Ask you to dance you said sorry
I prefer to dance alone
And I said Dance if you want to
Don't ignore the sound
Dance if you want to
When no one's around
It's getting late now
You're still there
And I'm still here
Party's picking up
You don't seem to care
And I said Dance if you want to
Don't ignore the sound
If you want to when no one's around
It just seems strange to me
That you and I are all alone
All you said was sorry
Can't you understand
I prefer to dance at home
And I said Dance if you want to
Don't ignore the sound
If you want to when no one's around
