Selfish

Queensberry

I don't need anybody else but you
Come on
[Foreign content]Boy, stop playin' tricks on me
'Cause when I think I found the right one, I end up lonely
So don't judge me before you get to know me
I don't wanna share your love, make me your one and only, oh
I don't want nobody else, I want you to myself
You can call me selfish if you want to
I don't need nobody else, don't wanna share your love
I wanna be the only one you run to
My heart can't take another heart break
Because every time I fall deep in love, somebody go and hurt me
So this time there will be no mistake
If you allow me to prove myself, boy, I can make you happy
I don't want nobody else, I want you to myself
You can call me selfish if you want to
I don't need nobody else, don't wanna share your love
I wanna be the only one you run to
I'm stingy with my man, I'm stingy with the goodies
If you think my style fly, then check the way I boogie
This one tough cookie with shell toes and hoodies
Will approach any chic that walk up to my man
Never understand my man, be my man
I shut the game down, this dude is mine now
Bring it to the ring, K.O. in one round
Miss Demeanor and Fantasia with the break down
I want to be the only one, the only one that you run to
I sure don't need nobody else, you're the one, you're the one
You're the one, you're the one I wanna be
I want to be the only one, the only one that you run to
I sure don't need nobody else, you're the one, you're the one
You're the one
I don't want nobody else, I want you to myself
You can call me selfish if you want to
I don't need nobody else, don't wanna share your love
I wanna be the only one you run to
