Take Me Home Tonight

Honeybrowne

Take Me Home Tonight
(McCormack/ Weeden)So what, we're ordinary
What they say about us
I see through them
So come on
It'll be alright now
Cause in a star filled sky
You held my hand tightTake me home tonight
We both know that this is right now
Let's leave this all behind
And we don't have to ask ourselves whyOur hope, our salvation
It never ends
Like our imagination
Just believe
Believe in yourself
Cause in a star filled sky
You were holding me tightTake me home tonight
We both know that this is right now
Let's leave this all behind
And we don't have to ask ourselves why
