Midnight Radio

Stephen Trask

Drivin' far from home on a midnight radio
Reckless and alone on a long black road
The city is burnin' like a dream, like a lady smokin' in the night
And she lets out a silent scream so far from the mornin' lightDon't know where to go and I don't know where I've been
And I don't know if I'll still be here when the sun rises again
But somewhere in the distance there's a tower and a light
Broadcastin' a resistance, through the rain and through the nightHold me in the darkness
Love is playin' in the darkness
On a midnight radio, on a midnight radioSo grab your little sister, wake up your children and your wife
'Cause a new train's comin' mister around the boarders of the night
Wavelengths of love are playin' on a midnight radio
Through the static and the rain on a midnight radio
Through the static and the rain on a midnight radioOh baby, on a midnight radio, on a midnight radio
On a midnight radio, on a midnight radio
On a midnight radio
