Our Last Night

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

They will lock you up and throw away the key
where no one will ever find you.
You were sent to destroy the world,
you were meant to be the end
of hope for all mankind.
I'd been wasting away. I let you get away so cleanly,
without a trace, without a sound.
By now my hope for you has fled me. They will dig a hole and bury you.
I wasted away so many days in hell,
I wasted away so many days in hell with you.
You were sent to destroy the world,
you were meant to be the end
of hope for all mankind.
I've wasted away so many days in knowing you. I let you get away so cleanly,
without a trace, without a sound.
By now my hope for you has fled me (fled me). I was a walking deadman living the truth
with a liar by my side.
I was a walking deadman living the truth
with a liar by my side. I let you get away so cleanly,
without a trace, without a sound.
By now my hope for you has fled me. I let you get away so cleanly,
without a trace, without a sound.
By now my hope for you has fled me. I let you get away, without a sound.
You were sent to destroy the world.
