Hello

Jasmine Villegas

CHORUS (Jasmine V):
I was running, running
Looking for somebody,but I always end up with
Nothing, nothing
Just a matter of time and I knew my prince was
Coming, coming
Now I know I found you
Cause you had me at
Hello, hello, hello uhhh
VERSE 1 (Krys Ivory):
Tryna follow rules but
I don't know the protocol
Should I make this call or
Are you even interested at all
Am I right
Am I wrong
If my instincts are honest
Then welcome to my heart
I was tryna fill an empty space
Looking for someone
Who could take this pain away
And somehow i end up feeling lonely
And then I met you, then I met you
CHORUS (Jasmine V):
I was running, running
Looking for somebody,but I always end up with
Nothing, nothing
Just a matter of time and I knew my prince was
Coming, coming
Now I know I found you
Cause you had me at
Hello, hello, hello uhhh
VERSE 2 (Julz West):
Baby girl
This was just was fate
Had you in my sights
Couldn't let you escape
I shouldn't be your prince
When I could be your king

Just seeing your smile
Is enough to make me wanna sing
Cause I like how you're staying

Like whatcha sayin'
You should get with me girl
nah I ain't playin'
I can set you free
Shawty you should let it be
When I saw you first
I was like I gotta date her
It's about time that I put pen to paper
The moment is now and it's now or never
If I make the first move we can dance forever
I feel so good around you
So hood around you
Searched so long
And now I found you
I can't let go
Cause baby girl you had me at hello, hello oooh
CHORUS (Jasmine V):
I was running, running
Coming, coming
Now I know I found you
Cause you had me at
BRIDGE (Krys Ivory):
And the stars must travel on
At my lucky chance at love
If I met you at this momement
This must be the right time now
Looking in your eyes
Looking in your eyes I said
Welcome to my heart
Oooh I was running
CHORUS (Jasmine V):
I was running, running
Coming, coming

Cause you had me at
