Gettin' Even

Seasons After

This time is gonna be the last time
Last night you crossed that line
Walked in, you're talking to him
I'm not blind, gonna see what you're doingNow that I caught you lying
This thing is gonna get two-sided
Run around with another man
Now it's going down, it's gonna hit the fan
Let's see how you like itChorus
I'm gonna drink all night till I'm feeling right
Take your brand new Porsche for a crash-test drive
Find me a girl with a couple of friends
Get down and dirty with all of them
Go back home, burn all your clothes
Watch it all go up in smoke
Baby, I'm not just leaving
I'm going out and gettin' evenBy now you're probably thinkin'
Oh, this is just a bluff
At the bar there's a little blonde winking
There's no way in hell I'm gonna pass it up
Let's see how you like itChorus
I'm gonna drink all night till I'm feelin right
Take your brand new Porsche for a crash-test drive
Find me a girl with a couple of friends
Get down and dirty with all of them
Go back home, burn all your clothes
Watch it all go up in smoke
Baby, I'm not just leavin
I'm going out and gettin' even (Going out and gettin' even)I'm leavin'
I think I'll call your sister
I think I'll call your friends
Baby, this ain't over
It's where it all beganguitar soloChorus
I'm gonna drink all night 'till I'm feelin right
Take your brand new Porsche for a crash-test drive
Find me a girl with a couple of friends
Get down and dirty with all of them
Go back home, burn all your clothes
Watch it all go up in smoke

Baby, I'm not just leaving
No, no, no, oh
Girl, you best start believin
I'm going out and gettin' even
Gettin' even
You better start believin
I'm going out and getting' even
