Silver Tongue

Today Is The Day

A storm is rising can't you sense
It what are you gonna do what she
Would say when you house burns down
On your judgement day after and after
After the laughter the words won't mean
Shit I'll plead with you I'll beg
For you I'll steal for you I'll
Plead with you looking down on me
Lockin' down on me lickin' down on Me I'm alright I 'm just drunk
Fuck it man tell lies anything
