Mortimer Nova

so peculiar the way she dances and she makes me follow to, follow to follow her feet, follow her feet she breathes atony i blame no one but myself your pain is irresistabletheres no such thing as panic when you can see in the future you know if you ring your bell your servants will come runningi never learned the universal languagetheres no such thing as panic when you can see in the future you know if you ring your bell your servants will come running i blame no one but myself your pain is so becoming theres no such thing as panic when you can see in the future
