Dawson's Geek

Busted

You think you know it in the way you're speaking
The long words that you use are starting to get irritating
I've got the urge to knock you out and I can't handle this
The ladder by your bedroom window really takes the pissStep back and take a look at where you're at
You're just a raving Dawson's maniac[Chorus]
You think that you know everything
Take one step back and look at yourself
I think you don't know anything
All my friends think that you're such a freak
And you're just a Dawson's geek
Dawson's, Dawson's geekWhy can't you see that you don't like him in any way?
At least that kid has friends and that's a lot more than you can say
You've lost your mind and I don't think that know who you are Naming you're dog "Pacey" was taking things a little too farStep back and take a look at where you're at You're just a raving Dawson's maniac[Chorus]I guess I'll have to wait for your life to be over
I guess I'll have to wait
I guess I'll have to waitHey
Oi
OiI think you don't know anything
All my friends think that you're such a freak
And you're just a Dawson's geek[Chorus]
