

Love Is a Sweet Thing

Faith Hill

He was sitting on the corner with a bottle of beer
And the same shopping cart he'd been pushing for years
A big smile on his face like the first day of spring
All the people looked the other way, but they heard him sing
And he sang Love, love is a sweet thing
He sang love, love is a sweet thing She shot out of Texas like a bullet from a gun
With a van full of hippies and a band on the run
She didn't wanna be famous she just wanted to play
At old dive bars and pool halls, she got up on stage
And she sang Love, love is a sweet thing, oh yes it is
She sang love, love is a sweet, sweet thing Its everywhere you look
If you look hard enough
It's really not to hard to see
Yeah, once put your arms around it
You can never get too much
Love is a sweet, sweet thing yeah yeah oh
Love is a sweet, thing It's in the smile of a stranger
In the eyes of a child
On the corner of a crowded street
It's everywhere around us
It's always growing wild
Love is the sweet, sweet thing Love, love is a sweet thing
I sang love, love, love
Love is a sweet thing
Love, love is a sweet thing oh yes it is I sang love, love, love
Love is a sweet, sweet thing
Oh, baby love
Love is a sweet thing, oh
I sang love, love is a sweet, sweet thing
