

Hold Me

Mimes On Rollercoasters

Hi. Hello. How are you?
I'm well, thank you for asking.
I missed you. Yes, so have I.
It's been such a very, very long time.

The days were long, the nights were cold, I dreamt of your arms around me.
The simple life is empty now, Baby come here won't you hold me?

So. I know. I want to say...
It's okay I know what you're thinking.
Let's start again. Mimi: Forget the past.
Pretend that it never happened.

The days were long, the nights were cold, I dreamt of your arms around me.
The simple life is empty now, Baby come here won't you hold me?

The days were long, the nights were cold, I dreamt of your arms around me.
The simple life is empty now, Baby come here won't you hold me?

The days were long, the nights were cold, I dreamt of your arms around me.
The simple life is empty now, Baby come here won't you hold me?

The days were long, the nights were cold, I dreamt of your arms around me.
The simple life is empty now, Baby come here won't you hold me?
