Happiness

Sean Lennon

Have you ever felt before
That everyone around you knows the deal
Except you
And it makes you feel
Like a moray eel
Green and blue
But listen up because
I know just how it feels to want more than you have
In life
Have you ever felt uncool
On the way to school, you drag your feet around.

Sometimes you act like a fool
Just to get her to look over at you
But listen up because I know just how it feels
To be the only one without a clue
Happiness is when you're not stressed
Though you messed up many things
And all the rest
You can forget 'cause it's not worth suffering
Maybe I'm not all that you expect me to be
But one day
I'll show you all I can be
