A Better Friend

Inspection 12

You betrayed me and all my trust.
You pin me down and wont let up.
There's no time or place for me it seems.
I back you up in all you do.
There's all but truth that dwells in you.
Wont you please be my friend today?
And I bend down to pick you up.
You'll pull me through till I get stuck.
I wish I had a better friend
