Candy's Room

Bruce Springsteen & The E Street Band

In Candy's room there are pictures of her heroes on the wall
But to get to Candy's room you gotta walk the darkness of Candy's hall
Strangers from the city, call my baby's number and they bring her toys
When I come knocking, she smiles pretty, she knows I want to be Candy's boyThere's a sadness hidden in that pretty face
A sadness all her own
From which no man can keep Candy safeWe kiss, my heart's pumpin' to my brain
And the blood rushes in my veins, the fire rushes towards the skies
I go driving, driving deep into the night
I go driving deep into the light, in Candy's eyesShe says, baby if you want to be wild
You got a lot to learn, close your eyes
Let them melt, let them fire
Let them burn
'Cause in the darkness, there'll be hidden worlds that shine
When I hold Candy close she makes the hidden worlds mineShe has fancy clothes and diamond rings
She has men who give her anything she wants, but they don't see
That what she wants is meOh, and I want her so
I'll never let her go, no, no, no
She knows that I'd give
All that I got to give
All that I want, all that I live
To make Candy mine
Tonight

Songwriters
BRUCE SPRINGSTEENPublished by Lyrics Â© Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC, Universal Music Publishing Group, Downtown Music Publishing
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/