Restless

Lighthouse Family

When I first met you I thought I ain't searchin' any more
'Cause we've got everything I've been looking for
And now I'm not so sure I can't be who you want
There'll always be a part of me wonderingI'm just a lost soul looking for my home
I'm just a lost soul looking for my homeWhen I learnt that you had gone for a week I carried on
Until the truth that dawned on me hit me like a stone
And it's taken me so long to know where I went wrong
You always make the same mistakes until you learnI'm just a lost soul looking for my home
I'm just a lost soul looking for my homeI'm just a lost soul looking for my home
I'm just a lost soul looking for my homeI'm just a lost soul looking for my home
I'm just a lost soul looking for my home
