

Sylvia (Single Version) [Mono]

Stevie Wonder

Whoa, oh, oh, yeah
Mmm, hmm Sylvia
You know you're getting to me now
Mmm, mmm, mmm, Sylvia
You gently touched my heart somehow Yesterday you made me happy as a child at play
Just like the summer sun that warms my heart
And move on, now you are gone Whoa, oh, oh, Sylvia
You're everything that I adore
That sweet song, that caught a spark I'm me more, yeah
Tenderly that's how you whisper that you loved me
As if a raindrop kissed my ear and disappeared, now you are gone Oh, oh, oh, yeah
You know I love my little Sylvia Sylvia, uh, uh, uh, uh, ah And yeah, whoa, uh, yeah And yesterday I feel in love with you all the way
Tenderly you lit a spark in my heart, now you are gone Mmm, hmm, Sylvia
I gently miss Sylvia
I'm crazy 'bout ya, Sylvia
You know I love my little Sylvia
