

Lost In a Song

Dylan Mondegreen

I recall '94
We were five simple boys
Named our band Tears For You
That's the thing we would just do What started out as just fun among friends became an obsession that seems to have no end
I will always be lost in a song
Want you to hum along
Changed our name to The Plums
Our drummer's kit had seven drums
For our very final show
we got on stage through the window
And then as we parted ways
I joined a band that tried to sound like The Sundays
I will always be lost in a song
Want you to hum along
When I turned thirty, I was still thirsty
Because everything else failed
I had no other choice but to trust in my own voice
I'm not a singer, just a singer of my songs and I want you to hum along
I will always be lost in a song
Want you to hum along
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>