

Brave (For Jude)

Tammy Shay

You taught me more, than I could teach you.
Youâ€™ve brought us joy, our world never knew
The love you contain, in your small sweet frame, leaves the troubles of this day so meaningless.

Be brave little one.
For the sun will come up.
When the night is gone, be strong.

Every hair on your head,
every inch of your skin,
formed with grace, created within.
The Masters heart, He can make no mistakes.
Everything you are is perfect in every way.

Be brave little one.
For the sun will come up.
When the night is gone, be strong.
Be brave little one.
For the sun will come up.
When the night is gone, be strong.

For the warrior has won.
We will overcome. (x4)

ooooh

Be brave little one.
For the sun will come up.
When the night is gone, be strong.
