

Texas Women (don't Stay Lonely Long)

Brooks & Dunn

Well I'll bet by the time I get to Tulsa
She'll be pullin' on them tight blue jeans
And she'll go down to cowboys and buy herself a cold one
And on a Friday night in Dallas, she's a cowboy's dream
Something tells me she'll sit out the first one
And then they'll play George Strait and she'll be gone
'Cause heaven knows that girl was born to two-step
And Texas women don't stay lonely long
It's a fact that women like the one I left
Can find somebody else, any time they want
It's a shame but I'm afraid the one I love
She don't like waiting much, no Texas women don't stay lonely long
Well I'd sure like to think she'd wait forever
She'd welcome me back in with open arms
But she don't walk the floor and she don't count the teardrops
And she don't pick up pieces from no broken heart
Oh I wish I could call and say I'm sorry
But there's nobody sittin' by the phone
You know she meant it when she told me that she loved me
And Texas women don't stay lonely long
It's a fact that women like the one I left
Can find somebody else, any time they want
It's a shame, but I'm afraid the one I love
She don't like waiting much, no Texas women don't stay lonely long
It's a fact that women like the one I left
Can find somebody else, any time they want
It's a shame, but I'm afraid the one I love
She don't like waiting much, no Texas women don't stay lonely long
